CONDITIONAL AUCTION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Introduction These Conditional Auction Terms and Conditions govern the conduct of conditional auctions conducted by Advanced Property Auctions. Any property sold by Advanced Property Auctions either Online or in person which is expressed to be Conditional is governed by these conditions.

There are three sections:

Glossary The glossary gives special meanings to certain words used in the conditions.

Auction Conduct Conditions The Auction Conduct Conditions govern the relationship between the auctioneer and anyone who participates in the auction. They apply wherever the property is located and cannot be changed without the auctioneer's agreement.

Reservation Conditions If you are the successful bidder in a conditional auction for a property then you must enter into a reservation agreement and will be bound by the reservation conditions relevant to that Property.

Important Notice

Before bidding for a property, a prudent Buyer should carry out their own due diligence, including but not limited to:

- Read these Conditional Auction Terms and Conditions and the Buying section of the Auctioneer's Website
- Check the Buyer Information Pack including the Special Conditions for the Property
- Take advice from professionals such as a conveyancer, a financial advisor, or a surveyor where appropriate.
- Have finance available for the Purchase Price, the Reservation Fee, and any additional fees stated in the Special Conditions These Conditions assume that a Buyer has acted as a prudent Buyer, and bidding without doing so is at your own risk.

Glossary

This glossary applies to the AUCTION CONDUCT CONDITIONS and the RESERVATION CONDITIONS.

The laws of England and Wales apply to the CONDITIONS and YOU, WE, the SELLER and the BUYER all submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales.

- a “person” includes a corporate body;
- words of one gender include the other genders;

No. The property is in an area where 0-1% of homes are estimated to be at or above the Action Level.

Informative

“Radon Affected Area” means a part of the country with a 1% probability or more of present or future homes being above the Action Level. Such areas are designated by Public Health England which also advises Government on the numerical value of the “Radon Action Level” (the recommended maximum radon concentration for present homes expressed as an annual average concentration in the home. Radon concentrations above the Action Level should be reduced below it and become as low as reasonably practicable).

The areas are identified from radiological evidence and are periodically reviewed by Public Health England. Existing homes in Affected Areas should have radon measurements. The present owner should say whether the radon concentration has been measured in the property; whether the result was at or above the Action Level and if so whether remedial measures were installed and whether the radon concentration was re-tested to assess the effectiveness of the remedy.

Radon preventative measures are required for new buildings in higher risk areas. For new properties the builder and/or the owners of properties built after 1988 should say whether protective measures were incorporated in the construction of the property.

Further information on radon, including an indicative version of the Radon Affected Areas map, the associated health risks and common questions and answers is available from Public Health England Radon Survey Centre of Radiation website (<http://ukradon.org/>). Alternatively information can be requested from Public Health England on 01235 822622 or by writing to Radon Survey, Centre for Radiation, Chemical and Environmental Hazards, Chilton, Didcot, Oxon, OX11 0RQ.

We may at our discretion charge you for the time that you have been on cover including Insurance Premium Tax.

Any refund of premium will be made to the party who paid the premium.

CLAIMS CONDITIONS

On becoming aware of any potential or actual Claim, the Insured will:

- a. provide written notice and details to the Insurer at the Insurer's Address immediately of all known facts including all communications, correspondence and all court documents.
- b. not admit any liability whatsoever or take steps to compromise or settle the Claim, without the written consent of the Insurer.
- c. provide all information and assistance that the Insurer and/or any party professional or otherwise acting on the Insurer's behalf require at the Insured's own expense doing everything reasonably practicable with the Insurer's prior written consent to minimise any loss.

- i. take or defend proceedings in any court or tribunal in the name of the Insured in any proceedings including the right to abandon or submit to judgment

 - c. If, at the time of the Claim, there is other insurance (whether incepted by the Insured or any other party) under which the Insured may be entitled to make a Claim, either wholly or partly in respect of the same interest or risk covered by this policy, the Insurer will not be liable to pay or contribute more than their rateable proportion of the Claim.
 - d. If the Insured shall make any Claim knowing the same to be false or fraudulent, as regards amount or otherwise, this policy shall become void and the Claim shall be forfeited.
 - e. The Insurer will be entitled to all rights and defences it may have in respect of a Claim notified by any Insured against any successor to that Insured.
 - f. Where the Insurer and the Insured cannot agree to the amount to be paid under this policy the matter shall be referred to an arbitrator to be appointed by the parties (or in default of agreement, in accordance with the law in force at the time). The making of an award by the arbitrator shall be a condition precedent to any right of action against the Insurer. The Insured will afford to the Insurer every reasonable assistance in this respect.
 - g. If the Insurer agrees or is obliged to make any payment to or on behalf of an Insured because of the risk insured by this policy the Insurer will immediately be subrogated to any rights which the Insured may have in relation to that risk.

About this form

The aim of this form is to make clear to the buyer which items are included in the sale. It must be completed accurately by the seller as the form may become part of the contract between the buyer and seller.

It is important that sellers and buyers check the information in this form carefully.

Definitions

- 'Seller' means all sellers together where the property is owned by more than one person.
- 'Buyer' means all buyers together where the property is being bought by more than one person.

The Law Society

TA1

Instructions to the seller and the buyer

In each row, the seller should tick the appropriate box to show whether:

- the item is included in the sale ('Included');
- the item is excluded from the sale ('Excluded');
- there is no such item at the property ('None').

Where an item is excluded from the sale the seller may offer it for sale by inserting a price in the appropriate box. The buyer can then decide whether to accept the seller's offer.

A seller who inserts a price in this form is responsible for negotiating the sale of that item directly with the buyer or through their estate agent. If the seller or buyer instructs their solicitor to negotiate the sale of such an item, there may be an additional charge.

Sellers and buyers should inform their solicitors of any arrangements made about items offered for sale.

If the seller removes any fixtures, fittings or contents, the seller should be reasonably careful to ensure that any damage caused is minimised.

Unless stated otherwise, the seller will be responsible for ensuring that all rubbish is removed from the property (including from the loft, garden, outbuildings, garages and sheds), and that the property is left in a reasonably clean and tidy condition.

About this form

This form is completed by the seller to supply the detailed information and documents which may be relied upon for the conveyancing process.

Definitions

- 'Seller' means all sellers together where the property is owned by more than one person.
- 'Buyer' means all buyers together where the property is being bought by more than one person.
- 'Property' includes all buildings and land within its boundaries.

Instructions to the seller

- The answers should be prepared by the person or persons who are named as owner on the deeds or Land Registry title or by the owner's legal representative(s) if selling under a power of attorney or grant of probate or representation. If there is more than one seller, you should prepare the answers together or, if only one seller prepares the form, the other(s) should check the answers given and all sellers should sign the form.
- If you do not know the answer to any question, you must say so. If you are unsure of the meaning of any questions or answers, please ask your solicitor. Completing this form is not mandatory, but omissions or delay in providing some information may delay the sale.
- If you later become aware of any information which would alter any replies you have given, you must inform your solicitor immediately. This is as important as giving the right answers in the first place. Do not change any arrangements concerning the property with anyone (such as a tenant or neighbour) without first consulting your solicitor.
- It is very important that your answers are accurate. If you give incorrect or incomplete information to the buyer (on this form or otherwise in writing or in conversation, whether through your estate agent or solicitor or directly to the buyer), the buyer may make a claim for compensation from you or refuse to complete the purchase.
- You should answer the questions based upon information known to you (or, in the case of legal representatives, you or the owner). You are not expected to have expert knowledge of legal or technical matters, or matters that occurred prior to your ownership of the property.
- Please give your solicitor any letters, agreements or other papers which help answer the questions. If you are aware of any which you are not supplying with the answers, tell your solicitor. If you do not have any documentation you may need to obtain copies at your own expense. Also pass to your solicitor any notices you have received concerning the property and any which arrive at any time before completion of the sale.

Instructions to the buyer

- If the seller gives you, separately from this form, any information concerning the property (in writing or in conversation, whether through an estate agent or solicitor or directly to you) on which you wish to rely when buying the property, you should tell your solicitor.

Drainage Assets within Boundary

 Yes

2.4 Does the public sewer map indicate any public sewer, disposal main or lateral drain within the boundaries of the property?

The map indicates an asset within the boundaries of the property. A full site inspection should be conducted prior to any works commencing to accurately locate the asset.

Notes

- (1) It has not always been a requirement for public sewers, disposal mains or lateral drains to be recorded on the public sewer map. It is therefore possible for unidentified sewers, disposal mains or lateral drains to exist within the boundaries of the property. A full site inspection is recommended prior to any work commencing.
- (2) Please note that from 1st October 2011 the majority of private sewers and lateral drains connected to the public network as of 1st July 2011 transferred into public ownership and it is therefore possible there may be additional public assets within or close to the boundary which may not be shown on the public sewer plan. The presence of public assets running within the boundary of the property may restrict further development. If there are any plans to develop the property further enquiries should be made to the undertaker.
- (3) The undertaker has a legal right of access to carry out work on its assets, subject to notice. This may result in employees of the undertaker or its contractors needing to enter the property to carry out work.

148, Meadway, Bradford, West Yorkshire, BD6 2SS.

 No

2.6 Are any sewer or lateral drains serving, or which are proposed to serve the property, the subject of an existing adoption agreement or an application for such an agreement?

The property is part of an established development and is not subject to an adoption agreement. Please note the majority of private sewers and lateral drains subject to adoption agreements were transferred into public ownership from 1st October 2011 and there may therefore be additional public sewers other than those shown on the plan.

Note: In the case of recent or new developments, please refer to developer.

Building Over Agreements

 See Detail

2.7 Has a sewerage undertaker approved or been consulted about any plans to erect a building or extension on the property over or in the vicinity of a public sewer, disposal main or drain?

Where an asset is shown within the boundary, you may wish to make additional enquiries of the relevant authority.

Notes: (1) Buildings or extensions erected over a sewer in contravention of building controls may have to be removed or altered.
(2) From the 1st October 2011 private sewers, disposal mains and lateral drains were transferred into public ownership and the sewerage undertaker may not have been approved or consulted about any plans to erect a building or extension on the property over or in the vicinity of these.
